Pilgrim Festival Chorus Presents

Retrospectives

Choral Masterpieces for the 21st Century

PLYMOUTH, MA Issued February xx, 2017...Pilgrim Festival Chorus (PFC), the region’s principal community chorus, presents a spring concert, Retrospectives, on Saturday, April 29 at 7:30 pm at St. Bonaventure Church in Manomet, and Sunday, April 30 at 4 pm at the 1st Parish Unitarian Church in Duxbury. The chorus is directed by William B. Richter and accompanied by Elizabeth Chapman Reilly on the piano.

This concert will highlight some of the best American composers creating choral music today. Works by Morten Lauridsen, Eric Whitacre, and Z. Randall Stroope, among others, have already become favorites of today's audiences. The chorus will be performing a wide range of styles, from energetic gospel tunes and spirituals, to harmonically rich settings of 19th and 20th century poetry. This is music that will have a profound impact on listeners.

Since 1999, PFC has delighted South Shore audiences with classical programming. The group of over 70 singers of all adult ages is dedicated to authentic choral singing. In addition to annual spring concerts, PFC generally presents a Christmas-themed concert in December, as well as a Messiah singalong, and summer concerts with pops-style programming.

Tickets are $20.00 for adults, $18.00 for senior citizens and $15.00 for students over 14. Children under the age of 14 are admitted free. Advance tickets may be purchased online at www.pilgrimfestivalchorus.org; and from PFC members. To reserve tickets by phone, please call Gail at (781) 826-8416. Complimentary refreshments will be served in the church hall immediately following the performance.
